HARVEST TIME

As long as the earth endures, seed time and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, day and night will never cease. Gen. 8:22

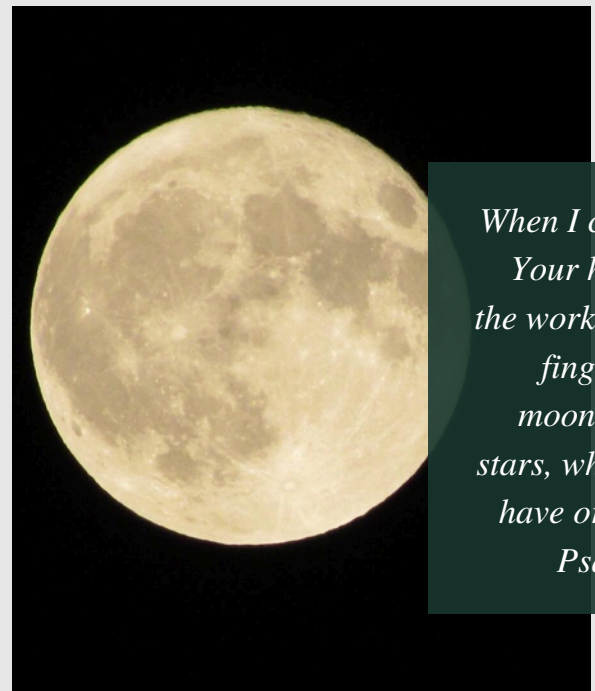

This time of year, always makes me think of growing up on the farm: harvesting tobacco, getting the barns ready for winter, chopping firewood, canning, and stocking the pantry. As I looked at this harvest moon, those thoughts of preparing, getting ready, and storing up came flooding back. The Holy Spirit prompted me to take a picture. “You’re going to need it.” I heard but I did not listen!!

Fast forward a few weeks; the Lord woke me up at 3:30 a.m. to write this newsletter. He gently reminded me I needed this picture. Paralyzed, I began to scramble. I messaged at least 20 friends. No one had taken any.

After hours of scrambling around, The Holy Spirit dropped a name in my spirit, I messaged, and she saved the day. While going through this ordeal, I was reminded of the parable of the five wise virgins and five foolish virgins in Matthew 25. I was running to everyone else for my oil (or pictures) and I was unprepared when the Lord visited me. It truly was a humbling reminder to me that I must be attentive and listening for His “still small voice.” As I examine myself and repent, I hope to be prepared upon His next visitation.

This month is the month to prepare our hearts for the coming of the Lord. Jesus is coming for His bride. I urge you to join me in getting ready for His return.

*When I consider Your heavens, the work of Your fingers, The moon and the stars, which You have ordained.
Psalm 8:3*

Ministry Needs: We are looking for freezers, several 6' or 8' heavy duty tables and gondola shelving.

Prayer Needs: Please be in prayer for our family and this ministry as we seek to serve missionaries and each participant that partakes in the food distribution. Pray that our family always remember the only harvest of value to the Lord is the harvest of souls sold out to Jesus. Let us do our part to usher in a harvest. Let us raise our hands as a praise offering too the Lord for all He has done.
