

OPEN DOORS MISSIONS RELIEF

Busy Busy Busy About My Father's Business

We have had a busy month at Open Doors Missions Relief. We have worked tirelessly to make the operation of the food distribution run like a well-oiled machine. Making small improvements each week helps to ensure your visit with us is enjoyable. We have also made a few much-needed improvements to the volunteer area of the Distribution Center making it much more functional for our faithful volunteers. (Pictures on the back). We have purchased a door we hope to get installed in the front of the building in order to make the check-out process smoother and more efficient.

As we work to make the Distribution Center run more smoothly, we must also continue to strive to serve the missionaries and pastors who seek lodging at the Mission House. Sadly, last year we were forced to turn down several missionary families stay, due to the existing house being occupied. It is heartbreaking to me. After much prayer we decided to start a second Mission House. We have a name in mind, but we would love for you share your thoughts for a name. Go to our FB page and drop the name under the picture. We would appreciate all the prayers we can get to be able to complete this house in a timely manner. None of this is possible without Christ and the work He is constantly doing in each of us, our volunteers, the contributors, and the participants.

This past week we had the privilege of sharing a meal and fellowshiping with some amazing missionaries, who serve with Rock of Ages Ministry in the prisons of Hungary.

As we seek to prioritize God's Business over our own agenda we look forward to what He has in store for Open Doors Missions Relief.

"To be about the Father's business is to let His love set your agenda and His Spirit guide your steps—whether across the street or across the seas."

However, my life is worth nothing to me unless I use it for finishing the work assigned me by the Lord Jesus- the work of telling others the Good News about the wonderful grace of God.

Our newest project

Missionaries we had the privilege of fellowshiping with.

Kay Trayner has donated another gorgeous quilt. This beautiful design is a wonderful representation of the Resurrection with its vibrant royal colors and filled with patches of the truth of God's Word. Raffle will run until April 10th. Tickets are $1 each.

Picture on the left the new mop sink and on the right the new hand sink. Both great additions to our volunteer area.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR

Food Distribution:

March 13th and March 27th. We are not accepting new applicants at this time at the food distribution. Please keep your eyes open for updates concerning this matter.

Volunteer Opportunity:

If the food distribution is a blessing to you or you have a heart to serve, please consider helping us out on a distribution day. See Tonya for more information and ask for a volunteer application. This ministry is not possible without our volunteers.

Workdays:

We do not have any specific workdays planned for March, but we are always sending out spontaneous workday notifications to the volunteers. If you want to be a part of those notifications let me know.

Name Invite:

Go to our FB page and drop your name ideas.

Ministry Need:

As you well know, we have been saving for blacktop. Because of your generosity in just a few short months we have received a little over $11,500.00 in donations to put toward blacktop. If you would like to contribute to helping with the blacktop fund, you may do so through any of the ways listed below in the white box.

We are needing some railing on the porch. If you know where we can get some or have a few pieces laying around, you would like to donate, give me a holler. I would like the black iron railing.

If you would like to partner with us to fund a missionaries stay in the Mission House or if you would like to become a monthly supporter of Open Doors Missions Relief, you may also use the ways below. Please state where you would like your support to go.

We are collecting gently used items for the annual fund-raising yard sale, which is tentatively set for June 2026.

Prayer Needs:

Pray our family will always prioritize God's purpose for our lives above personal comfort. Pray we will live to serve others, sharing the grace of God as we finish the work He has set before us. Please pray we follow the God-given call on our lives never shrinking back.
